$200,000 Powerball® Ticket Claimed

Washington, D.C. – C. Williams of Washington, D.C. claimed the winning $200,000 POWERBALL ticket for the drawing held December 17, 2011. A retiree of the federal government, Ms. Williams' winning numbers were chosen via the Quick Pick (automated) option. This winning ticket was purchased at 4 Season Convenience, 4975 South Dakota Avenue, N.E.

"We congratulate all winners at all levels and the year isn't over yet," said Buddy Roogow, executive director of the D.C. Lottery. "We still have million-dollar winning chances remaining with District of Columbia Gold and Money Money Money Scratchers, and two triple digit jackpots that are still growing. We look forward to greeting more winners at the Claim Center!"

2011 is rounding out nicely for D.C. Lottery players. In addition to this win, $200,000 prizes were awarded to Powerball players in September and July. A $250,000 Mega Millions win was awarded in June. And, three million-dollar prizes were awarded with the District of Columbia Black (March), District of Columbia Gold (July), and Money Money Money (November) D.C. Scratchers.

Winners of D.C. Lottery prizes worth $200,000 or more are now required to validate and claim their prize at the D.C. Lottery's headquarters located at 2101 Martin Luther King, Jr. Avenue, S.E. An appointment is required, and winners should call the agency's Communications Department at (202) 645-7900 to schedule the awarding of their prize.

DCLB's headquarters is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and are closed on government recognized holidays.

The jackpot for the POWERBALL drawing to be held on Wednesday, December 21, is $104 million ($66.8 million is the cash option). Tickets can be purchased at any licensed D.C. Lottery retailer. More information about POWERBALL and other D.C. Lottery games along with winners, retailers, and promotions is available at www.dclottery.com.
